One part of the actor, Mr. Bean,.Q: Facebook API is giving bad request error when I use cross-domain calls on a Facebook application I have a Facebook Application and I want to make a call to facebook graph api with my application. I have written the following code in javascript. FB.init({ appId: 'MYAPPID', status: true, cookie: true, xfbml: true }); FB.api('/me', function(response) { alert('Hi' + response.name); }); I keep getting a warning saying: "NetworkError: 404 Not Found - " I think facebook is not allowing call to cross-domain because of the FBS server. But my application has everything required to make this call. Do I need to make changes in the app configuration? How can I make this call? A: You can configure your application to allow cross-domain calls as described here: Setting this parameter will allow calls to be executed from a URL
